SUMMER CAMP

This summer, the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood is excited to once again be hosting camps for young men in middle school (Brothers of Borromeo Vocation Camp; B.B.V.C.) and high school (Quo Vadis). These camps are wonderful opportunities for fellowship and camaraderie for the young men, as well as the chance to spend time with seminarians, priests and deacons from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Participants will not only have fun and participate in many activities, but explore their faith and learn how to listen for God's voice in their lives. Throughout the years, one of the hallmarks of these camps is the unique opportunity for participants to experience their faith with a larger group of young men similar to themselves who come from throughout the entire Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

The Quo Vadis Days are from June 25th to June 29th. This four-day, three-night camp will be held at the Black Rock Retreat Centers in Quarryville. The camp will include daily Mass, Liturgy of the Hours, Eucharistic Adoration, outdoor activities, a ropes course, powerful prayer and great talks. Deadline to register is June 4th.

The Brothers of Borromeo Vocation Camp (BBVC) will be held on July 13th for boys going into 6th grade to graduated 8th graders. This fun day will be held at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary and will include games, activities, great talks, powerful prayer, Mass, lunch and dinner. Deadline to register is June 30th.
